Christ has risen, Alleluia!

Letter from the Principal

I hope you all are enjoying this Easter season. It's our busiest time of year. Please be sure to read all communications coming home carefully. Let's finish the year strong by continuing to encourage focus on our academics this final quarter.

Miss Patton

We hope many of you will be able to join us for our First Communion this Saturday, April 11th at the 5:30 Mass. We are very proud of our first Communicants. Thank you to Miss Simpson for working with our 2nd graders in preparation for this incredible part of their sacramental lives.

I still owe an out of uniform day to the students who attended the basketball tournament games. If you attended the week night games at St. Pius X or the championship games at JP II, you may come out of uniform this Friday.

Meals for the McGowan Family

Mrs. Collins has volunteered to deliver meals to the McGowan family from the families of St. Pius X. If you are able to participate by sending in items please contact the school office so we can make a schedule.

The mission of St. Pius X Classical Academy is to manifest God's love in the world through a commitment to the spiritual, moral, emotional, and intellectual development of its students accomplished through the use of a Catholic classical curriculum.

Badminton

Miss Hopwood will be offering the opportunity to grades K-8 to play badminton from 3:30-4:30 every Tuesday in April.

Congratulations, Lauren Ransom (Class of 2011) for making the All- State Basketball team. Please visit <http://www.tennessean.com/story/news/local/sumner/2015/04/08/ransom-paid/25448893/> for a great article on Lauren's achievements.

Permission forms for Swimming for grades 4-8 are due this Friday, April 10th along with the $2 fee to cover the cost of lifeguards.

Spring Optional Uniform

Students began wearing the spring optional uniform today. Red polos with school logo may be worn with navy short with a belt. Solid white tennis shoes with white socks should be worn with shorts. If students choose to continue to wear pants or skirts/jumpers, it should be with a white shirt/blouse and dress shoes. Please make sure that uniforms fit appropriately as I am sure they have all grown since November. Several students had incorrect shoes and no belt today.

The window to apply for financial aid by submitting your information through Smart Tuition Aid is still open.

Please continue to send in Pre-registration forms.

8th Grade Car Wash

The 8th grade will be holding a car wash at the Northwest YMCA off Clarksville Highway next Tuesday, April 14th. They will be taking donations for their class trip to Washington D.C.

Spring Scholastic Book Fair

Our Spring book fair will be the week of April 20-24. We already have a parent volunteer to coordinate, but if you'd like to volunteer to set up or work the fair, please let the office know.

The mission of St. Pius X Classical Academy is to manifest God's love in the world through a commitment to the spiritual, moral, emotional, and intellectual development of its students accomplished through the use of a Catholic classical curriculum.
